2015 AIT Youth Camp

Building innovative solutions to social challenges

In collaboration with the U.S. Consulate General Hong Kong & Macau and National Cheng Kung University, the American Institute in Taiwan is launching its third annual Youth Camp. This year's camp will focus on volunteerism, creativity & innovation, social inclusion, and leadership. The camp includes interactive panels led by experts from U.S. government-sponsored exchange programs, volunteerism and leadership activities, and cultural and historical site exploration.

Venue: National Cheng Kung University

Taiwan university students of any major are welcome to apply!

Application deadline: May 25, 2015 (early submission is encouraged)

Camp expenses will be covered by AIT.
