

2015 Taiwan-America Student Conference

Global Connections: Inspiring Future Leaders

In Taiwan, July 22- August 12, 2015

Greetings from TASC! All nationalities are welcome!

- ✓ Are you looking for international experience this summer?
- ✓ Are you thinking about stepping out of your comfort zone?
- ✓ Is there anything about social issues you want to discuss with foreigners? Do you hope to make a difference?

“TASC: Taiwan-America Student Conference Association”

- ✓ TASC is an international student-run organization of those studying in the Taiwan and the U.S.
- ✓ It is also recognized by the Ministry of Interior Affairs in Taiwan.
- ✓ It aims at improving the mutual understanding and diverse viewpoints between the outstanding student leaders on the both sides by teamwork.

Now, the TASC Association presents

- ◆ 2015 Taiwan-America Student Conference: The Applications are open!
- ✓ 2015 TASC will take place in Taiwan and last three weeks, from July 22 to August 12. It will be carried out officially in English.
- ✓ The association will select 15 delegates for each country.
- ✓ All nationalities are welcome.

Here are some of the main features of 2015 TASC:

- Roundtable discussion : A roundtable consists of eight delegates, half of whom are from the U.S. Roundtable discussion encourages delegates to express their understanding and opinions of a given topic. After the thorough discussion, they will present their projects at Final Forum and interact with experts and guests further.

- Speakers' talks : We will invite international leaders and young prominent speakers to deliver talks. The invited guests include Dr. William A. Stanton, the former director at American Institute in Taiwan and Bing-Cheng Yeh, a professor from National Taiwan University.
- Corporation visits : It enables delegates to explore networking and reach out potential mentors for their future.
- Cultural experience and site visits : Delegates will learn Taiwan in a brand new light by experiencing different sides of cultures. They will also redefine Taiwan based on their personal experience.
- Life-long friendships: Spending every minute together for three weeks establishes long-term intercultural friendships. Delegates will find a sense of belonging and trust.
