Study Italian language and culture in Venice this summer!

In the 2016 summer session the Ca' Foscari School for International Education offers programmes in Italian language and culture which are aimed at creating a true Venetian experience by offering activities that put students in direct contact with life in Venice and its lagoon.

2016 Programme dates

June 27 — July 8

(2 weeks, 40 hours Italian + 10 hours Culture)

July 11 — July 29

(3 weeks, 50 hours Italian + 15 hours Culture)

All language classes are taught by native language Italian speakers, and culture classes can be chosen from themes such as art history in Venice, the design of glassmaking, Italian literature, and Venetian cultural history, among others.

Course Costs

2 weeks

40 hours Italian + 10 hours Culture €620

3 weeks

50 hours Italian + 15 hours Culture €800

The course fee covers all instruction, University facility access and student administration (including the issue of a final transcript).

Students can also choose to participate in any of a range of extra-curricular activities, from a guided tour of the city to day excursions, from dragon-boating through the canals to Venetian cooking.

Accommodation at a student residence can also be requested (Accommodation costs are based on current estimates, but could be subject to change):

€490 (13 nights — 2 week programme)

€750 (20 nights — 3 week programme)
